

I don't believe this would be in the public interest at all. It would only further the power of big business against the individual rights. Thank you.